

Alma Flor Gonzalez-Edwards

Born and raised in Albuquerque, NM, Alma Flor Gonzalez-Edwards, MBA, is a Center Business Administrator for Sandia National Laboratories managing various financial portfolios in excess of 200M. Alma has been with Sandia Labs collectively 13+ years. She spent 4 years in industry working for Lovelace Rehab Hospital as a Project Coordinator, which enabled her to work with patients in the Albuquerque community and worked directly under the Director of Risk Management, helping manage grievances and working with two psychologists on staff.

Alma has participated in various community programs through Sandia's Community Outreach Program. She mentored a high school Latina through the Hermanitas Program, served as a middle school mentor in impoverished communities, volunteered at Cuidando Los Ninos, and participated in fundraising activities for numerous events.

Alma received her Master of Business Administration from Webster University, and a Bachelor of Arts in Spanish with a minor in Psychology from the University of New Mexico. She enjoys traveling, experiencing differing cuisines, and spending time with her family, friends, and her husband Zhabiz.