

Haniff Sealy

Haniff Sealy received his PharmD from Hampton University and is currently employed at the Gallup Indian Medical Center.

Haniff Sealy is a board member for the New Mexico Pharmacist Association which provides general supervision of all property, funds, finances, activities, and publications for the organization. He is also a New Mexico Pharmacist Association delegate to the American Pharmacist Association. As part of the House of Delegates, he participates in developing proposals and adopting policies.

His hobbies are actions of civic responsibility and playing golf.